

Day Nine: PRAYER AND WORK

The active life to be productive must have contemplation. When it (contemplation) gets to a certain height it overflows to active life and gets help and strength from the heart of God. This is the way the saints produced so much fruit, and we're all called to be saints.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, model for the union of prayer and work, pray for us.

CLOSING PRAYER:

"I wish to be one who conscientiously takes part in the unfolding of God's plans, and eventually have a glorious part in the final unfolding of time into the glory of God's Kingdom in heaven. If we are disciples (of Jesus) we shall be happy to spend ourselves and be spent for the salvation of souls."

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, pray for us.

SISTERS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

SAINT KATHARINE DREXEL

1858 -1955

Born a wealthy, educated Philadelphia socialite of the late 19th century, Katharine Drexel could have made of life what she chose. Her choice came out of her strong Catholic faith and deep compassion for the poor and oppressed among Native and African Americans.

On February 12, 1891 she made her first vows as a religious, founding the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament dedicated to sharing the message of the Gospel and the life of the Eucharist. St. Katharine established many ministries among the poor and led a life devoted to Eucharistic prayer and outreach to the poor.

St. Katharine died on March 3, 1955 and was canonized on October 1, 2000.
Her feast day is March 3rd.

For more information & updates visit our website:

www.katharinedrexel.org

Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament
1663 Bristol Pike
Bensalem, PA 19020
(215) 244-9900

Printed with ecclesiastical approval.

Saint Katharine Drexel Novena

Opening and Closing Prayers with a Daily Reflection

Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament

"I wish to be before You as light as a feather, so that Your breath may carry me where You will."

- St. Katharine Drexel

OPENING PRAYER:

Ever Loving God, you called St. Katharine Drexel to teach the message of the Gospel and to bring the life of the Eucharist to the Black and Native American peoples.

By her prayers and example, enable us to work for justice among the poor and oppressed. Draw us all into the Eucharistic community of Your Church, that we may be one in You.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Day One: EUCHARIST

The Eucharist is a never-ending sacrifice. It is the Sacrament of love, the supreme love, the act of love. Help me each moment today and always to communicate myself to You by doing Your will.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, lover of the Eucharist, pray for us.

Day Two: EVANGELIZATION

I looked up in wonder at God's wonderful ways and thought how little we imagine what may be the result of listening and acting on a desire He puts into the heart. Nourish before Him great desires... May our desire be to bring Him hearts, for all are His by right, having been purchased by every drop of His blood.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, model for those who evangelize, pray for us.

Day Three: PEACE

Peacefully do at each moment what at that moment ought to be done. If we do what each moment requires, we will eventually complete God's plan, whatever it is. We can trust God to take care of the master plan when we take care of the details.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, steadfast in trust, pray for us.

Day Four: SERVANT OF THE POOR

Kindness is the natural fruit of goodness of heart. He (Jesus) loved every human being as the image of God ... and so all that came within range of His benevolence were treated kindly for God's sake and their own.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, lover of the poor, pray for us.

Day Five: SUFFERING OF CHRIST

Often in my desire to work for others I find my hands tied, something hinders my charitable designs, some hostile influence renders me powerless. My prayers seem to avail nothing, my kind acts are rejected, I seem to do the wrong thing when I am trying to do my best. In such cases I must not grieve. I am only treading in my Master's steps.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, follower of the suffering Christ, pray for us.

Day Six: THE CROSS

(Christ) may be leading me out to a cross. If so, I can have no hesitation about following Him! I must follow Him closely, so that ... I shall be near Him, my Good Shepherd, Who will help me to carry it, for He still bears His Cross in each one of His children.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, bearer of the cross, pray for us.

Day Seven: DEVOTION TO MARY

Teach me, O my dear Mother, the lesson of sacrifice. Help me, Mother, to take from the hands of Jesus, in the spirit of humble love, devotion to my daily crosses.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, daughter of Mary, pray for us.

Day Eight: BUILDING FOR ETERNITY

Out of our common todays and yesterdays we are building for eternity. No thought, no work of ours ever dies. We shall meet them all again, and in the world to come shall find our gathered harvest.

- St. Katharine Drexel

Brief pause for reflection

St. Katharine Drexel, woman of vision, pray for us.

continued...