Summer is the Perfect Time to Kickstart Evangelization & Community Involvement

Summer schedules often give us more time to explore doing the things we have put off during busier months of the year. Take advantage of these extra hours to promote evangelization and community involvement through your actions. View some ideas below.

God's People are out in your community awaiting... They need us to visit them. They need us to help them with a walk in nearby parks. They need us to help fill out forms, and make phone calls; Seniors and children need us to speak of and dramatize the seven sacraments.

Children need us for reading lessons, storytelling, learning new games, or visiting museums... or other new places!

Use your creativity and decide on your outreach to seniors or youth. Work it out with the appropriate person on site. God is depending on us to bring the word in many forms to the city, to the town...

Let us do it!
