The Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, founded in 1891 by St. Katharine Drexel, is a congregation dedicated to the interracial apostolate in the USA, Jamaica and Haiti. Today SBS serve in elementary and secondary schools as well as at Xavier University of Louisiana in New Orleans. They are also involved in a variety of other services including pastoral and spiritual ministries, social services, counseling, religious education and health care, primarily but not exclusively among Black and Native American peoples. The Administrative offices of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament continue to be located in Bensalem, Pa.

President's Message

March 2018

Dear Friends of the SBS,
Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament,

As we journey through the Lenten season towards Easter Sunday, we are offered an opportunity for reflection. I am reminded of a quote from St. Katharine Drexel that speaks to the Core Values of the SBS to promote justice and peace.

"Be diligent at your work, and peaceful."

- St. Katharine Drexel

As Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, we are called to embrace these words of St.

Katharine by becoming living examples of the Eucharistic Christ, and approaching our commitment to uphold social justice by peaceful means, as Jesus Himself did.

We live in turbulent times where social injustices and prejudice still exist. Today, however, many people are taking a stand for what they believe is right and just. Some are calling attention to gross injustices and are conscientiously bearing witness to the gospel message of Jesus. As Christians, we seek to promote unity and community throughout the world by peaceful means.

This edition of MISSION shares living examples of our Sisters diligently ministering among God's people enthusiastically fulfilling their spiritual and material needs in a just and peaceful manner.

We wish you and your family peace and joy in the risen Lord this Easter. Many blessings on your endeavors as you, too, work peacefully and diligently in God's name.

Sincerely in the Blessed Sacrament,

Sr. Donna Breslin

SBS President

Listening to God in Jamaica

In the beginning, Sr. Jane and I shared the use of a car and lived in Christiana outside of Mandeville when ministering at our respective sites. When Sr. Jane was elected Vice-President of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament July 2015, I returned to live alone in the two-story, five-bedroom convent at Sacred Heart Parish where we had resided together. In August 2016, I moved at the request of the diocese, to an apartment in Our Lady of Dunsinanne Shrine just outside Mandeville.

Occasionally at Our Lady of Hope EEI, we are assisted by teachers and volunteers from Catholic parishes in the U.S. This group was from Holy Angels Parish in Kentucky.

I assumed responsibility to greet North American mission groups who arrived to reside at the Shrine during their short mission experiences. These groups donate financial assistance and invaluable services to diocesan parishes, schools and medical clinics.

Given these new circumstances, I continued to apply Bishop Neil's suggestion to discern, but broadened my focus from the college to the diocese... What was God seeking to do for the people here that He had given me the ability to support? I periodically meet with Archbishop Dufour, the current Diocesan Administrator, to keep him abreast of my activities.

I sometimes meet one-time specific needs such as:

- Facilitating the Focus Group input into the Diocesan Education Policy Manual;
- Clarifying the meaning of the term Catholic Identity for new members at the Diocesan School Boards Meeting;

Love for Praying the Rosary Continues with Group Initially Founded by Sr. Jane Nesmith, SBS, in Mandeville in 2014

During the period when Sr. Jane Nesmith, SBS, served full-time as the High School Campus Minister at Mt. St. Joseph in Mandeville, Jamaica in 2014, she began a prayer group that met weekly to pray the rosary together.

Upon her return visit in 2016, Sr. Jane was delighted to learn that the group continued to meet. Even though few of the students were Catholic, they remained united in their love of praying the rosary, and extended the invitation for new members to join them.

A mother of one of the group members shared that when they first began meeting, she didn't understand the prayer, but was just happy to see her daughter praying. Her child even continued to pray the rosary privately in her room at home.

Sr. Jane leads group in praying the Rosary, a group formed in 2014, that today, still continues to meet and grow.

After their prayer together, Our Lady of Hope EEI principal, Mrs. Kizzy Barrett-Royal, asked Sr. Faith to bless the produce the parents were purchasing to support the school.

- Facilitating the surfacing of core values from various groups at Mt. St. Joseph High School.

Continual Assistance Given to:

- Help the Director of Catechists in the education and training of catechists in the diocese. This has included teaching one-day training sessions for Mandeville catechists, presenting at National Catechists Day, and giving retreats to the Catechetical Institute of Jamaica. I am scheduled to give a day's retreat to this year's catechumens, and am an active resource person for the catechists in my own parish;
- Organize or assist in giving one-day retreats to various groups;
- Hold monthly 20 - 30 minute adult education presentations after Sunday Mass in three different parishes;
- Collaborate with the Director of Catholic Schools to strengthen the religious education programs in the schools;
- Assist with the orientation of the new Passionist Volunteers each July as they prepare to live together in community and to spend a year of service in the Mandeville Diocese.

How meaningful, then, are these words of Saint Katharine Drexel...

“The active life, to be productive, must have contemplation. When it gets to a certain height, it overflows to active life and gets help and strength from the love of God.”

Chapel Dedication

Blessed to implement ways to evangelize according to the needs of those I serve and through my own giftedness.

The Issue of Immigration

Challenging All Forms of Racism and Other Deeply Rooted Injustices in Our Society

“We cannot show animosity or acrimony to anyone who is different from us. Skin color or national origin doesn’t matter to God and it should not matter to us either. What does matter is that we love others as we love ourselves and that we show hospitality to immigrants, regardless of where they’re from. Jesus articulates how we are to ‘love’ others when he states: ‘Love your neighbor as you love yourself.’” (Mark 12:31)

Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament and Associates of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament Social Justice Committee

Thousands of years ago God addressed the issue of immigration when he told the children of Abraham:

“You shall treat the immigrant who resides with you no differently than those born among you; you shall love the immigrant as yourself; for you too, were once immigrants in the land of Egypt.” (Leviticus 19:34)

“Cursed be anyone who deprives the resident immigrant, the orphan or the widow of justice!” (Deuteronomy 27:19)

God places a curse on anyone who does not ensure justice for the widows, orphans and immigrant. They have just as much of a right to justice as do the citizens of this land. If any immigrant has entered the country and claimed the nation as his or her own, they are now part of this nation and as such, they have equal rights under the law.

“And all the people shall answer, ‘Amen.’” (Deuteronomy 27:19)

God has always been concerned about those who are on the fringes of society and are least able to defend themselves and their own rights.

St. Katharine Drexel, SBS embraced this concern of God’s when in 1891 she established a congregation of women religious to serve African Americans who had only been emancipated 28 years and to support Native Americans who lived under policies of extermination and assimilation that were embodied in legislation.

Today the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament continue to challenge all forms of racism and all other social injustices in our nation and our world.

Immigration reform and the treatment of immigrants at this moment in our nation is at odds not only with all this great nation of immigrants stands for, but with God’s admonitions to us on how we are to treat the immigrants among us.

Immigration to the United States is based upon the following principles:

1. the reunification of families,
2. admitting immigrants with skills that are valuable to the U.S. economy,
3. protecting refugees and,
4. promoting diversity.

We, the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament Call on All to Encourage Congress to:

1. Protect these four principles (especially the reunification of families and protecting refugees):
2. To reform our immigration system by:
 - a. Developing a strong worker program in conjunction with Mexico’s department of labor;
 - b. Prosecuting businesses that foster illegal immigration by hiring coyotes to bring workers here illegally;
 - c. Giving the “DACA” women and men legal status and a path to citizenship; and
 - d. Making the process of coming into the United States legally more efficient.

We, the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament are calling upon all people of faith to heed and act upon the word of God.

“Have a cordial respect for others in heart and mind; if there is any prejudice in the mind we must uproot it, or it will pull us down.”

- St. Katharine Drexel

A Call to Action:

Contact your senators and representatives in Congress, your state legislature, and local officials asking them to work for justice for the immigrants among us.

“Thus says the Lord of hosts, Render true judgements, show kindness and mercy to one another, do not oppress the widow, the fatherless, the immigrant, or the poor, and let none of you devise evil against another in your heart.”

(Zechariah 7:9-10)

God is speaking through Zechariah the Prophet that we are to render true judgements and not based upon who or what a person looks like. God is not only the defender of the widows, orphans, the poor, but also the immigrant. Remember, we too, are immigrants or descendents of immigrants.

“Working for Social Justice can take many paths. Whichever path we take, we will walk with Jesus who has drawn to the outcasts, the wounded, the needy.”

- St. Katharine Drexel

Commissioned to the ASBS at the age of 96, Emily Milner has never let a thing like age stand in the way of being an active Associate. She rides the bus weekly to the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception where she takes people on tours and shares the story of St. Katharine and the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament.

Healing and Liberating the Poor with the Help of SKD Parishes in Weston and Cape Coral.

Sr. Anne Meehan, SBS and Sr. Laura Cavanaugh, SBS marvel in the spirit of two local communities inspired by the charism of Saint Katherine Drexel (whom their parishes were named after) to help the less fortunate during the Christmas season.

While this pair of Sisters seek to heal, liberate and release the poor and oppressed from their circumstances through providing nursing and education, they have found that...

“The people are healing and liberating us in even MORE ways.” - Sisters Anne and Laura

The people of God in each of these churches MORE than contribute to our ministries. This Christmas is filled with the highest quality of blankets, towels, toiletries, gifts for children and gift cards and more. These churches help pay rent, food, medical bills. Where would we be without them? Even more they give us witness as deeply committed disciples — healing and liberating the poor.

Bay St. Louis, MS

Sr. Katherine Mary Chazotte, SBS

Sr. Katherine began her ministry first in Macon, Georgia and then moved to West Philadelphia in the state of Pennsylvania. For most of her teaching years, she taught in the primary grades. After many years in education, she changed to parish ministry, where Sr. Katherine worked up until 2012.

Her next mission included teaching for 5 years at Holy Trinity Catholic School in Bay Saint Louis, Mississippi as a resource teacher. After retiring from teaching Sr. Katherine became a volunteer at the school, and joined CASA, as a Court Appointed Special Advocate (a program to aid children in foster care.)

In the last year over 280,000 children had a CASA advocate speak up for their best interests, and a total of over 432,000 children are still awaiting an empowered volunteer to find them a safe, loving and permanent home. At present, the network is made up of close to just 87,000 volunteers, so the need is strong based upon the demand for these child services.

Sr. Katherine is presently working to assist two children in the system. She is hopeful that she will see them both return to their families soon.

For more information on CASA, click here to view their website.

A Trio of Sisters Showcase Their Acting Talents by Joining the Actors Guild

The Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament are a community accustomed to sharing their skills and talents within their ministry, but many are blessed with added talents from God that they enjoy sharing as well with others. Recently, Sr. Carole Eden, Sr. Marjorie Everett, and Sr. Kathleen Kajer joined the Actors Guild to showcase these talents in performances at Paul's Run events. Their commitment requires practice and dedication to learning new things. We applaud this trio of Sisters for stepping outside of their comfort zone and sharing their talents in a new and exciting form of ministry.

Sr. Marjorie Everett, SBS

What's Happening Now

St. Martin de Porres Parish & Paul's Run

Opportunities for Prayer and Service

"Every Day is a Day of Opportunity for Prayer and Service."

- Sr. Mary Norbert Moline, SBS

Sr. Mary Norbert Moline, SBS believes that every day should begin with the Power of Prayer — the electricity that flows through each day.

As a member of St. Martin de Porres Parish, Sr. Norbert joyfully welcomed the invitation to serve the Parish by extending its Ministry of Care and Outreach. The formation of a prayer group that meets regularly has been an awesome experience in bringing Sister and the parishioners together in praise and intercession. The group meets in the Parish Chapel. However, those who can't come to the Church are not left out — they get to experience outreach in prayer and by phone visitations.

Living at Paul's Run Retirement Community, Sister Norbert makes every day a day of opportunity to share a personal service and/or prayer with someone who can no longer come to Chapel. She assists weekly serving as a minister of the Eucharist, and also enjoys helping in the monthly preparation of meals for the homeless, and for women and children living in a shelter.

St. Francis Inn & Paul's Run

When Sr. Margaret Sullivan, SBS, was preparing to move to Philadelphia from Birmingham, AL, she took to the internet in search of a place in which she could contribute hands-on ministry work. That is where she first discovered St. Francis Inn Ministries, an organization providing services to residents and homeless individuals in the Kensington area of Philadelphia. It was founded by two Franciscan Friars in December 1979 to respond to the current needs of the poor.

Today, they provide multiple services: daily meals through St. Francis Inn and its generous benefactors; and other basic essentials available at the Thrift Store; education and support to end the cycle of poverty provided through the St. Francis Urban Center, and a safe haven for women dealing with abuse, addiction and poverty is provided at the Thea Bowman

"St. Francis Inn offers a listening ear and a helping hand in a non-judgmental environment, assisting the guests (not called clients) to help themselves to use this opportunity for bettering their life in Kensington."

- Sr. Margaret Sullivan, SBS

Women's Center. These services are provided with dignity and respect for those in which they serve.

A driver picks up Sr. Margaret so that she can volunteer her time once a week to assist at the Inn distributing meals to the guests, many of whom offer blessings back to her and other volunteers for their service and kindness. She noted that there is a sign that appears on the inside of the front door reminding all that Jesus is at the door...what a loving reminder of treating others as you would treat God.

St. Athanasius School & Paul's Run

After relocating to Paul's Run in northeast Philadelphia from working dual duties teaching Sophmores at St. Michael Indian School and serving as Pastoral Life Coordinator at St. Anthony Parish in Many Farms, Arizona, Sr. Christa McGill, SBS used her contacts within the Philadelphia Archdiocese to locate her new ministry — a process which only took a mere phone call or two to find.

After speaking on the phone and then visiting with Pastor of St. Athanasius Parish, Fr. Joseph Okonski, Sr. Christa agreed to assist their parish school with Faith Enrichment for students from Pre-K through 8th grade. In addition to this, she also assists with RCIC (Rite of Christian Initiation of Children) which includes preparation for the Sacraments of First Reconciliation, First Holy Communion and Confirmation. She also facilitates Retreat Days for faculty, staff and Archdiocesan employees.

Often, the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament must rely upon the charity of others to perform their ministry work. Sr. Christa is most grateful to St. Athanasius School Principal, Ms. Andrea Tomaino, who gives Sr. Christa a ride to and from the school on the two days a week that she is on campus.

Faith Enrichment is guided by materials based upon the Sophia Institute for Teachers. It consists of groups of 15-20 students who come to Sr. Christa for approximately 45 minutes twice weekly, somewhat shorter for the younger children. The student population is comprised of approximately 300 black students ranging from African Americans to Haitians, to immigrants from Senegal and Ghana whose parents have chosen to enroll them into Catholic School for their education. There is a wide mix of religious backgrounds which include the following faiths: Catholic, Seventh Day Adventist, Jehova Witness, and others, so the focus is a broader Christian based approach to faith — to remain inclusive to all.

“The ministry work I do is God-centered...unifying the best in other people’s faith backgrounds.”

- Sr. Christa McGill, SBS

Depending upon the age group, the students view videos, work on word searches, coloring sheets and other materials developed for learning about the Gospel and faith enrichment. All of the students take turns every other week in participating in Adoration in the Church. Sr. Christa is awestruck at how quiet and reverent even the little ones are during this time of reflection and prayer.

“Do each thing as well as you can; Leave the rest to God.”

- St. Katharine Drexel

Paul's Run

This Fall, Sr. Agnes McDevitt, SBS put her presentation skills to work to share with the residents at Paul's Run a Power Point Presentation on the life of Saint Katharine Drexel.

SBS Charism

As Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, we believe God calls us to be a sign in the world of the power of the Eucharistic Christ to effect unity and community among all peoples.

By sharing the mission of St. Katharine and the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, Sr. Agnes is helping to enlighten the residents and inspire others to share the gospel message with the poor, to challenge all forms of racism and other deeply rooted injustices in the world today.

Sr. Rita Radloff, SBS
Reading Specialist

St. Peter Claver Catholic School just celebrated its 95th Anniversary, however, like most Catholic Schools located within low income areas it struggles to keep its doors open, and remains in debt. That is just one of many reasons why Sr. Rita Radloff's presence at the school is greatly valued.

Normally, resources such as tutors and Reading Specialists would not be available to the students due to budget cuts. Sister Rita's ministry provides reading assistance with grades K-7, every day for approximately 4 hrs. each day. The groups she meets with are small to provide more individualized attention to the needs of each student within a group setting. In addition, she also works with the teachers to enhance the learning experience of the students in their classroom, and provides other areas of general support, as needed. One of those is helping to mend the Kinta vests worn by the students.

“There is nothing little in what is done for God.”

- St. Katharine Drexel

When asked how her ministry could benefit from donations and greater financial support, Sr. Rita replied, “The school could benefit from more technology, a computerized library system, and bringing in more students with tuition vouchers or scholarships.”

Did You Know?

Fr. A. Gerard Jordan was a former student of Sr. Rita's, and she saw that vocation in him long before he received his calling to the priesthood. Father has a fondness for Sister Rita & the SBS for the formation that he received by them, as well as their encouragement in following his vocation as a priest.

“People call on us ‘to do the little things.’”

- Sr. Rita Radloff, SBS

Sr. Rita has an extensive background in education. She formerly taught in St. Louis, MO, and served as a Principal in Lake Charles, LA; Chicago, IL and Birmingham, AL. She joined the novitiate of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament in 1956, after high school. She initially entered with the intention of being a social worker and to work on a reservation with Native Americans, however, she was guided towards education. In addition to her position at the school, Sr. Rita assists a blind woman on Saturdays, and is a driver for a Sister at the Holy Family Community.

Sr. Nathalee Bryant, SBS
School Librarian

A native of West Philadelphia, Sr. Nathalee Bryant, SBS, became interested in the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament while working with the SBS at St. Ignatius Rectory.

Following her graduation from Chestnut Hill College in 1958, Sister entered the novitiate. As a postulant, she was assigned to library with Sr. Guadalupe, which later inspired her to study Library Science at Villanova University.

She has served at Xavier University Prep, now known as St. Katharine Drexel Prep, non-consecutively for 23 years, teaching generations of students. Sr. Nathalee has taught religion classes, worked as a substitute teacher and as a librarian. In addition to her responsibilities as a librarian — keeping track of the books, doing library orientations, presenting DVDs; she is also in charge of Channel 1, a nationwide news channel. Sister trains the students in using the equipment and reporting of the local news.

Sr. Nathalee also participates in the Archdiocese Mass Choir which entails practice once a month, concerts 2-3 times a month, and she supports the school's sports teams with her presence at the game/events.

Top 3 Most Important Ministry Goals:

- ❁ 90% students reading for enjoyment
- ❁ Increase their curiosity of the local and global world
- ❁ Instill empathy for others

Niara Woods
Student, Advocate for SKD Prep

Niara is presently a student enrolled in the school that her two older sisters, talented sports athletes, also attended. Principal Jacob Owens attests to the strong legacy of Niara's family, as well as most who go to this Catholic School. That is why Niara and other alumni could not sit idle when the school was at risk of being closed. Click here to read her article.

Niara put together a very moving video/power point presentation that inspired alumni of the school to come together to save it from being closed. Her initiative shows how one person can truly make a difference, just as St. Katharine Drexel did throughout her lifetime.

The school continues to have a long list of needs and could benefit from extra financial support. To view Sr. Nathalee's Library wish list click here. To assist with a donation to the school, click here to donate to a fund or campaign.

St. Michaels, AZ

Sr. Marilyn Ross

Sr. Marilyn's first assignment at St. Michael Indian School (SMIS) was in 1988, teaching 3rd and 4th grade students, and she returned to the school in 2008 to begin her second assignment there after furthering her studies.

SMIS is the last remaining school to be operated by the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. Opened in 1902 by Saint Katharine Drexel, the once K-8 boarding school grew to include a high school in 1947, and a pre-school in 2015. Evolving to meet the demands of the local community and the student body, the school incorporated in 1993 and currently entails a two-tier Board of Directors and members of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament.

In addition to her classroom instruction, Sr. Marilyn also engages her students by having them do chores at the chapel as a way of keeping their energy going, allowing them to earn Service Hours, and giving them a break from their studies. This also provides them with time for Spiritual Walking to the Mission, and promotes environmental awareness - picking up trash or cleaning the arroya/stream. Other Service Hours opportunities include sorting and distributing donations of clothing, toys and small appliances from California. Sr. Marilyn says, "It teaches them the valuable lesson that in receiving, we should also consider the needs of others."

Sr. Marilyn has had to call upon her lifetime of experiences of relying on our Lord Jesus Christ in helping raise siblings, becoming a Native religious, and combatting the statistics of diabetes, dialysis, suicide, and breast-cancer that impact so many families. Through it all, she has shared from the heart.

"Education is a give and receive ministry: I may teach the students lessons, but they have taught me forgiveness, humor and humbleness."

- Sr. Marilyn Ross, SBS

Influenced by her Aunt Florence Parker who recently said, "Do your ministry with love," Sister stresses the importance of having a loving relationship with Jesus. As the only SBS at St. Michaels, Sr. Marilyn finds that daily Mass and Prayers, and Meetings with the SBS at Desert House of Prayer spiritual community, helps her to keep in harmony and find balance in her life.

As she faces the challenges of teaching — keeping lesson plans up-to-date, grading assignments and completing paperwork, Sr. Marilyn finds that it all becomes lighter and gets accomplished when she offers it all up for Him...Jesus.

"Do your ministry with love."

- Sr. Marilyn Ross' Aunt Florence

St. Michael's Principal Sorci said, "Sister Marilyn is an asset to St. Michael because of her longevity to the community, her native heritage, and her leadership and mentorship to our students and staff is very much appreciated."

Culturally, Sr. Marilyn's life involves some Tribal obligations and family commitments: attending the January 1st Installation of the Pueblo Governor and Staff; Paraje and Casa Blanca village meetings (Pueblo membership is knowing the protocol); attending Pueblo Feast Days and participating in the "Follow the Leader" Dances. Summer is a time to participate in village activities - mud plastering of the Kiva (prayer house), corn grinding with the women, and village feedings (pot-lucks). She is a Grandmother to her sisters and brothers' grandchildren, Clan and Kiva relatives who are part of her extended family.

Sr. Caritas Allen once gave her the advice, "Get old gracefully." Sr. Marilyn tries to do this with joy, pride and love. Dance is also prayer to her and her culture. The Pueblo have the Eagle, Deer, Buffalo, and Butterfly

“Mother Katharine and the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament have had an educational and spiritual impact on the Navajo People.”

- Sr. Marilyn Ross

Dances that she participates in at the Pow-wow as a Jiggle Dress Dancer - a dance of healing for physical, mental and spiritual needs. Her first dress was from the Red Lake Ojibway elderly women of Minnesota.

Sr. Marilyn's other accomplishments include serving as Spiritual Director for the St. Michaels Kateri Circle with the National Tekakwitha Conference. She and her mother attended the first Conference open to the laity in Denver, Colorado, 1980. That was where she met with Native Religious-priests, brothers and sisters (many of the women were graduates of SMIS and embraced the spirit of Mother Katharine of prayer and work.)

Below: Sister joins a group photo of flute and choir students who performed during Catholic Schools Week 2017.

For almost ten years, Sr. Marilyn Ross, SBS, has served as a member of the Sisters Council, Gallup Diocese. This provides her with an opportunity for fellowship with other Sisters and a platform to update other ministries on local community, state and national issues.

Sr. Marilyn also notes that Mother Katharine and the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament have had an educational and spiritual impact on the Navajo People. Many of whom are Tribal and State leaders, run their own businesses, and are devoted family and church members. Many daughters are named after the Sisters! She feels that it is crucial that the SMIS alumni are invited to and participate in the Friday Liturgies, annual Bazaar, Christmas Lighting Ceremony/Play, Open Houses and other school functions since they are great sports supporters! Let us not forget them; they know us, the community, and can provide a connection between the two.

Each of the Sisters enjoyed some treats....yummy cookies from SBS employee Linda Johnston, hot chocolate, coffee and danish received from supporters. Sr. Donna and leadership distributed beautiful calendars to the Sisters. All were happy to be together in such a joyous day of celebration.

Through the generosity and thoughtfulness of Sister Geri Fitzpatrick, SSJ, and her sister, Barbara Covello, the Sisters were treated to some wonderful presents to open at the party.

The Closing of the National Shrine is Marked with a Mass of Thanksgiving Celebrated with Supporters & Friends

A private “Mass of Thanksgiving” in St. Elizabeth Chapel at the National Shrine of St. Katharine Drexel was held at 2 p.m. on December 31, 2017. The Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament were joined by current and previous employees, volunteers, Associates and Clergy to offer praise and gratitude for the Eucharistic ministries and treasured relationships initiated there.

The multi-talented musicians and Gospel Choir from St. Martin de Porres Parish brought a joyful tone to the event. Bishop Deliman of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia concelebrated the Mass with almost a dozen various clergy members with close ties to the Sisters. The bishop noted in a wonderful homily St. Katharine’s fearless attitude of service and her visionary spirit...perfect inspiration for all present to further the Mission of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament.

St. Elizabeth Chapel was built by St. Katharine in 1892 as part of the original motherhouse. Nearing its centennial year, renovations began in 1988 in accordance with the Second Vatican Council. St. Elizabeth Chapel still stands today as a symbol of love and sacrifice that St. Katharine and the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament made over the years.

Xavier University Homecoming Weekend Events

Nov. 17-19, 2017

XULA Students and Alumni celebrate Homecoming weekend with many events and activities on campus. A time to celebrate the legacy and many success stories.

“Homecoming weekend was my first time visiting Xavier University, however one thing stands out—there is such a wonderful legacy that resounds—and the successes born from the education and experiences received here, are too numerous to count. The influence of St. Katharine Drexel and the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament will never be forgotten—as witnessed by the many alumni who so openly show their love for their former SBS teachers.”

Xavier University was all a buzz with activities in preparation for Homecoming weekend when I arrived mid week. Some of the festivities planned for the weekend included concerts, the Celebration on the Yard, Homecoming parade, tailgate party and basketball game, Alumni Banquet, concerts and an Alumni Mass.

Students could be found practicing songs for upcoming performances while staff worked on putting finishing touches on a wonderful collection loan from CCH Pounder, famed actress from the TV show NCIS: New Orleans.

Coffee & Chat Session

The early morning Coffee & Chat Session on Friday, hosted inside the Administration Auditorium, provided time for alumni, staff and faculty to catch up on the exciting things going on in their life, both personally and professionally. It was a great start to a full weekend of activities on the campus.

Alumni gathered on the steps to take some group and some casual photos with their former classmates. Sr. Grace Mary Flickinger, SBS, recently retired and well loved Professor Emeritus of Xavier, poses alongside of her former students. She was delighted to be back on campus and attend the Homecoming festivities.

Banquet & Silent Auction

While the morning and afternoon was full of casual fun and celebrations with friends, Saturday evening was all about recognizing the milestones and efforts of the alumni at a banquet hosted in the University Center ballroom.

This event was glitz and glamour as everyone wore their finest attire to come together and celebrate the accomplishments achieved during the year.

Some received medals for their special anniversaries. Others received applause.

Some of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament were in attendance at the Homecoming Banquet. Sr. Juliana Haynes, SBS, opened and closed the night with a prayer. Sr. Monica Loughlin, SBS, also spoke at the event, and Sr. Mary Ann Stachow, SBS received her 50th class reunion medal.

Nov. 19, 2017

The endings to celebrations are typically not so joyous, however the Alumni Mass held at the chapel on Sunday proved quite joyful, and the perfect finale to a wonderful homecoming weekend at Xavier University. The amazing choir and liturgical dancers brought the spirit of St. Katharine Drexel to the Mass.

Sr. Mary John Soulliard, SBS

Apr. 1, 1922 ~ Sep. 1, 2017

*Jesus, God of my heart,
my only Love*

Eleanor, who later would be known as Sr. Mary John, was the fourth child of ten girls and two boys born to Charles Soulliard and Dora Murphy of Pennsylvania.

As a child, Eleanor attended parochial schools and graduated from Catholic High in Harrisburg in 1940. The summer after graduation, she entered the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament. Following three years in the novitiate, she professed her first vows on Aug. 24, 1943, and five years later, pronounced her perpetual vows.

Sr. Mary John was blessed with a long and varied life of missionary service. She began by teaching in the SBS elementary schools in West Philadelphia, New Orleans, New Iberia, Biloxi, Cleveland, and St. Martinville. During these years of full-time teaching she took college courses and earned her Bachelor of Science degree in education from Villanova University in 1950.

Sister also taught high school in Mississippi, Louisiana; Texas and New Mexico. She later served as principal in Beaumont and Santa Fe. Concurrently, Sister studied and received her Master's Degree in Education Administration in 1976.

In 1979, Sr. Mary John became the superintendent of schools for the Archdiocese of Santa Fe. In 1985, Sister was assigned to the motherhouse to edit Mission Magazine and work in development. Prior to that, from 1966 -1973, she had worked in Public Relations and served as Vocation Director. In 1990, she assumed a new role in social services as the Director of the Haitian Catholic Center in Belle Glade, Florida.

It was in 2008 that Sr. Mary John's health began to decline, and she returned to the Motherhouse. In 2017, she made the move to Paul's Run retirement community. On August 31st, Sisters surrounded her in prayer as she peacefully slipped away to Jesus, the God of her heart, her only love, the following morning.

Sr. Catherine Bardsley, SBS

Dec. 30, 1930 ~ Oct. 3, 2017

Rabboni

On December 30, 1930, Catherine Cecilia became the first born child of Catherine McLoughlin of Philadelphia and John Bardsley of Springfield, MA. She experienced a lively youth with three sisters and two brothers growing up in the Germantown section of Philadelphia.

Influenced by the Sisters at Little Flower Catholic Girls' High School where she attended who spoke about society's prejudice against African Americans, she became interested in the religious order in the area that did something about injustice. Following her graduation in 1948, Catherine entered the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament and took the name of Sr. M. Regina Cecilia. Her first vows were professed in 1951.

Sister's mission work took her to New Orleans, New York and then Oklahoma, where she became a principal and teacher of the Osage Indians.

Having earned her Bachelor Degree from Villanova and her Master's from Fordham, she served the next thirty-five years as school principal or convent director in Cleveland, three schools in New York City and two schools in New Orleans. Frequently her artistic skills were also used in preparing bulletin boards and program covers. These skills were also utilized in teaching elementary school art classes at St. Michael Indian School on the Navajo Reservation. At this time she was now called Sr. Catherine.

After returning to St. Michael Hall in 2006 to work as the Director, Sister also lent her talents to help with designing greeting cards, comforting and encouraging visitors at the Shrine of St. Katharine Drexel and assisting as a cashier in the gift shop.

Sr. Catherine moved to Paul's Run in May 2017, and following leg surgery in July she was placed under hospice care. In the afternoon of October 3rd Sister's longing for Rabboni was quietly fulfilled as she went to meet Him face to face.

Sr. Patricia Lynch, SBS

Feb. 4, 1928 ~ Oct. 7, 2017

Offer to God the Sacrifice of Praise

Patricia Grace was born in New York City on February 4, 1928, the fourth child of Robert E. Lynch and Margaret Naughton Lynch. She and her two older brothers and one sister lost their mother prior to her first birthday and were cared for by their paternal grandmother who “had great faith and imparted it to [her grandchildren].”

Patricia’s father worked as a cargo supervisor which lead them to New Bedord, MA for several years, but the family returned to New York where she went on to graduate from Cathedral High School in 1946.

Her sister Jean entered the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament; however, Patricia worked in advertising and attended night classes at Fordham University. It wasn’t until 1950 that she entered the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, without any encouragement other than prayers said by her sister. She became a novice in 1951 taking the name of Sr. Patrick Thomas, and she professed her first vows on Aug. 4, 1953.

From 1955-1968 Sister was missioned at Our Lady of Lourdes in Atlanta, GA. She earned both her Bachelor’s and Master’s degrees from Villanova University, and later earned her Ph.D. in American History from Xavier University in New Orleans.

Now known as Sr. Patricia, she took on one of her most notable assignments in 1984 spending ten years writing the history of the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament from 1891-1991. Her greatest honor during that time was being given St. Katharine Drexel’s room for her office and bedroom to use. In the later 80’s she also wrote the history of Xavier University at the request of President Norman Francis.

Sr. Patricia retired to St. Michael Hall in 2011, then moved to Paul’s Run in the spring of 2017, where her health continued to decline. She peacefully breathed her last breath on Saturday afternoon, October 7th, surrounded by Sisters praying at her bedside.
