

St. Katharine Drexel

When St. Katharine Drexel was seeking counsel on her vocation she wished greatly to make a real difference in the lives of the Black and Native American peoples. She wished to provide them with opportunities for education and spiritual nourishment. She took action to establish schools across the country for these underprivileged groups.

Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament

The Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament is a Catholic congregation founded in 1891 by St. Katharine Drexel to share the spirit of the Eucharist with the Black and Native American communities. We provide social services, counseling, health services, education, and spiritual development.

Total Gift of Self

For the Sisters of the Blessed Sacrament, it is a life-long commitment, a "total gift of self." God calls us to be charitable people actively seeking to end social injustices. It takes supporters like you for us to continue our mission and to bring St. Katharine's vision to life. Thank you!
